Class Name: Bamburgh

Term : December 2017

What we have been learning:

Bamburgh students are a wonderful bunch who never cease to amaze me with their commitment to learning, to each other, and their ability to collaborate for a great outcome. Our weekly pizza stall this term has raised £58, which we have recently sent to the Island Farm Donkey Sanctuary.

The students have worked so hard with their statistics project about saving electricity, and have realised the part they can play in looking after our planet. They have felt empowered and knowledgeable, and it is a pleasure to see them remind their peers and staff at Post 16 to turn off the lights and their computers at lunchtime.

They too have learnt a lot about letter writing, and have written a number of letters now to family and friends. Our English culminated in a collaborative formal letter to Jon detailing our saving electricity project, making suggestions how we can electricity as a school.

We have been looking at anxiety management techniques on a Friday afternoon, and have had some very chilled sessions of massage, emotional tapping techniques, and Finlay has been particularly championing a 'Friday footspa'.

Special moments:

Finlay has started to say lots of new words, and phrases, which we are delighted for him.

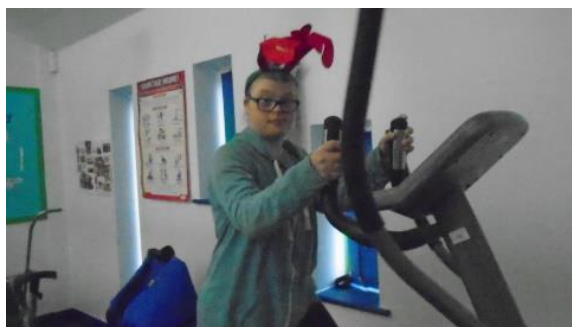

Esme and Sophie have been an integral part of Jan's catering enterprise this term, and have been excellent ambassadors for the school.

George sang a number of solo songs during the recent Music for Autism visit.

Euklin's culinary skills are superb, and he continues to impress us week by week.

Tiffany is such a social butterfly now! It's wonderful to see her having such confidence.
