Class Name: Balmoral Term: Autumn term 2 Whole School Topic: What's on our plate?

Some photos of our learning

What's been going on in class

In English, we have worked really hard on story writing. We have learnt that a story is built from three parts. A beginning, a middle and an end. We have discussed how front covers give us clues to what is happening in a story and we have created our very own stories that are similar to Pie Corbett's Little Red Hen. The children have enjoyed looking back at their stories and reading them to one another.

In Maths, we have looked at subtraction, time, and shape. The children have been very good at learning all the terminology involved with shapes and are now able to name them and discuss their properties.

In topic, we have explored where food comes from and how it travels to our country. We watched videos that showed us how bananas were grown and enjoyed roleplaying their journey. We also learnt fruits and vegetables in french and thoroughly enjoyed getting arty when prop making for our Christmas Play and making lots of festive crafts too.

Amy says 'What an exciting term we have had with all the festivities. I am so pleased with how well everyone is doing in class and all the children should be very proud of their hard work. I hope that you all have a well deserved restful break and I will look forward to seeing you in January.'

Special Moments:

- Megan is now able to cross her legs when sitting on the carpet independently and is no longer needing any reminders. Well done Megan!
- Joshua has settled into class well and has made lots of friends in Balmoral Class.
- All the children made us very proud during their Christmas Performance by using big loud voices and learning their lines. Well done everybody!
