

Plympton Class

In Plympton Class, Pancake Day was a triumph! Students were fantastic at identifying the ingredients required, communicating their desired topping and then shopping. Abi showed great confidence, independently researching a recipe and creating an impressive video of herself teaching everybody how to cook the pancakes.

All students explored the ingredients and created a batter which they then cooked. The brief silence in the room was an indication of how tasty the pancakes were!

