Class Name: Conway

Term : Summer 1 2025

Theme: A Bug's Life

What we have been learning

Well this half term may have been short but it's been a super sweet one!

Our topic this half term has been A Bug's Life, and we have channelled our learning through the story The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

The good weather has taken a lot of our learning outside which the children have really enjoyed, and we have seen plenty of bugs in real life.

In English we have been working on our communication to talk about our likes and dislikes, as well as matching items from the story, and sequencing the story from the beginning, to the middle through to the end. This led onto our learning about the life cycle of a butterfly.

We have continued to explore other areas of the school with regular trips to the field and the library each week. The children have shown great independence in accessing their own books and make sure they keep our library tidy. We even talked about keeping safe when crossing the road and always check for cars now.

In Maths we have been working on counting and number recognition, as well as identifying 2D shapes and repeating patterns. We even had a go at making our own repeating pattern caterpillars. Alongside the story of The Very Hungry Caterpillar we worked on ordering the days of the week.

This term we have tasted a lot of fruit just as the hungry caterpillar did! Once we'd tried different fruits, we chose our favourites to make fruit kebabs, and blitzed them up to make a smoothie. Throughout the day the children have been working hard to communicate their wants and needs. Whether we are building on our sentences, or engaging in more eye contact and initiating interactions, we have seen a huge development in our overall level of communication in Conway Class and it is wonderful to see!

We hope you have a fab half term!
